

Employer Feedback Analysis 2020-21

Suggestions	Implementation
Activities should be organized to enhance communication skills and soft skills among students.	15 days online short term course has been organized for students so that they can enhance their soft skills and communication skills
For students' personality development, activities should be organized.	15 days online short term course has been organized for personality development of students.
To enhance placement opportunities, exposure to organizations should be increased.	Placement Cell of our institution has been collaborated with S. S. Medicity Hospital and placed our student in S.S.Medicity Hospital.
To inculcate moral and ethical values among students, the institution should provide new opportunities. The students should be encouraged and acknowledged to develop pro-social behavior.	Moral and Religious cell has organized different activities for students so that students enhance their moral values i.e webinar on the topic Sri Guru Teg Bahadur ji de 400 saala Parkash Purab Nu Smarpit.